

SAFARI ITINERARY

December 23: NAIROBI - MASAI MARA

On arrival at the Jomo Kenyatta Airport, met by our representative and later transferred through Nairobi to Maasai Mara. Today our safari will lead us to the jewel of Kenya parks the Masai Mara Game Reserve by road. Masai Mara is Kenya's most visited reserve and a home to the "Big Five". The breathtaking views, a panorama of fertile vast rolling plains which supports a huge amount of resident plain games and their predators. Apart from the big five the Masai Mara is most famous for the annual spectacle of the wildebeest migration, where millions of wildebeest, zebra and gazelle leave the plains of the Serengeti and cross the Mara River in search of fresh feeding grounds. Lunch to be served en-route at Narok Town. Your accommodation for the next two nights will be at one of the semi permanent campsites with good facilities as such big tents, good shower facilities and a nice bonfire area for the night. On arrival at Masai Mara you will proceed for a late afternoon game drive. Later you will return to the campsite where our experienced cook will serve you with dinner. Fire will be at the campsite for the rest of the evening, overnight at campsite (BLD).

December 24: MASAI MARA.

The day will start with an early morning game drive before dawn and later return to your camp for breakfast and relax for the rest of late morning and perhaps take a dip at the swimming pool at one of the lodges situated next to our campsite at your cost. Later late afternoon return to the wilderness in search of games, all meals and overnight at campsite

December 25: MASAI MARA – LAKE NAKURU

Soon after an early morning breakfast, you will depart Maasai Mara to Lake Nakuru arriving in time for lunch. Lake Nakuru National Park surrounds lake and was gazetted to protect the colony of flamingoes as well as provide sanctuary for the endangered species such as the rhino. Other Savannah games are abundant in and not mention numerous bird species. Lake Nakuru is home to a million of flamingoes beautifully lining at its shores. You shall have an afternoon game drive before dinner and overnight at campsite. Camping will be in 2 man dome tents here, with shared shower facilities.

December 26: LAKE NAKURU – AMBOSELI

After an early morning breakfast, proceed with your safari by road to Amboseli National Park through Nairobi where you shall have lunch then proceed on to Amboseli. The park and surrounding game reserve cover 1260 sq miles and is mostly arid woodland with a series of swamps and lakes that provides a year round water supply for wildlife. The snowcapped peak of Kilimanjaro rising above a sea of clouds, dominates every aspect of Amboseli and forms a backdrop to an impressive display of wildlife with its population of lion, huge herd of elephant, buffalo etc. With a game drive en-route you'll arrive to your campsite for lunch. On arrival our staff will set the camp while you enjoy an afternoon game drive. The facilities at the campsite are very basic which include an open ground, Bole-hole water supply, Bathroom Rooms without showers and Pit Latrine.

Later in the late afternoon you will return to the campsite where our experienced cook will serve you with delicious dinner. Fire will set at the campsite for rest of the evening while you enjoy coffee. Overnight at the campsite (BLD).

December 27: AMBOSELI

A dawn game drive will be the perfect time for photographing Mt. Kilimanjaro the highest peak in Africa. Return to your campsite for breakfast and thereafter you will have enough time to rest in between the morning and afternoon game drives. All meals and overnight at the campsite (BLD).

December 28: AMBOSELI - NAIROBI

Leave Amboseli for Nairobi after breakfast with a short game drive as you leave the park. Drive to Nairobi arriving in the early afternoon where you will take an international flight home.
